

Press Statement

Charles Myadze proudly represents Madison's 18th District. As an alderman he has taken a strong stance against domestic violence, consistently supporting initiatives and funding aimed at assisting survivors and combatting domestic violence within our community. It is an issue of great importance that requires our collective attention and action.

Mr. Myadze is aware of the accusations being made against him. He unequivocally asserts that these allegations are unfounded and that he has never engaged in domestic abuse towards any woman.

Over 20 years ago Mr. Myadze was charged with domestic violence during a contentious divorce and custody battle. To resolve this matter, he entered a deferred prosecution agreement with the Dane County District Attorney's Office which required him to enter a guilty plea to one criminal count. Mr. Myadze successfully completed the agreement and all charges were dismissed.

Mr. Myadze is eager for the opportunity to meet the false allegations being made against him in court. He trusts the legal process and will be vindicated.

Mr. Myadze remains committed to serving our community with integrity and dedication.
